Jennifer Leitham

Sunday, December 13th

Jennifer Jane Leitham has been referred to by noted jazz critic Leonard Feather as the "left-handed virtuoso of the upright bass." In addition to her successful performance career, Jennifer has appeared on over 100 recordings with some of the giants of jazz music. In addition, she has recorded many highly acclaimed CDs of her own.

Luther Hughes & the Cannonball Coltrane Project

Sunday, December 20th

Cannonball-Coltrane Project. Initially formed as an homage to the 1959 Cannonball Adderley-John Coltrane landmark album, The Cannonball Adderley Quintet in Chicago, our group continues to pay tribute to these jazz giants with arrangements and original compositions related to or inspired by Cannonball and/or Coltrane.

George Gilliam Trio

Sunday, December 27th

George J. Gilliam is a seasoned guitarist with a smooth distinctive style that makes his sound uniquely classic. "George Gilliam subtly changes dynamics and adds fills with sweet, well-timed chording." Commented Bill Kohlhaase from the LA Times. George has performed in many venues over the years in and outside of California. George always insists on surrounding himself with great musicians. All the while, his talent and style have evolved into an outstanding guitarist who appeals to any audience.
